Dear Shoppers,

“It’s beginning to look a lot like Christmas” – and that’s because it is! The run-down to Christmas and NYE has begun and as we get ready to bid adieu to 2022 and welcome 2023, it gives us a reason to rejoice! There is no cheer better than the holiday spirit that brings friends, families and even your furry favourites together. From exciting gifts to dining with your loved ones, it’s that time of the year again when we need to look glamorous and steal the spotlight.

To kickstart the season, I’m excited to announce another edition of DLF Malls TREND – the one-stop solution for all your holiday season needs. From the best beauty tips to winter fashion advice, decking your homes for Christmas and New Year’s to warm winter meals and drinks for that fuzzy feeling, the celebrations have begun at DLF Malls!

Our cover star is the ever so stylish and heartthrob to India’s millions, Kiara Advani, in association with MANGO. The Bollywood diva proves the importance of being your style muse this season and brings to the forefront major fashion inspiration for the holiday season.

We have gone the extra mile to curate the perfect shopping guide to keep you on trend for winter fashion at DLF Malls, ‘Many in Me.’ Think boots to keep you snug or vibrant knitwear and trench coats for a sunny winter brunch look to sequins and shimmer classics for NYE, we have it all covered! And what’s more? Don’t forget to sneak a peek at the revamped Zara experiential store with RFID-enabled fitting rooms, at DLF Promenade.

Speaking about the collaboration Bollywood actor, Kiara Advani, said,

'Tis the season to be jolly — and bring out your individuality by dressing up.

In the world of social media, where fashion has a chase to trends, it's important to look within and seek your own style. ## TRESSES

HAIR TRENDS FOR 2022

Say hello to luscious locks as Sumit Israni throws light on the key hair trends for the season.

Amp up your glam quotient with hair trends that will make your tresses look enviable.

DRESSED UP PONYTAIL A high ponytail is always trending because it is versatile and easy to do. If worn slick and straight, it's perfect for a formal event.

SLICKED BACK STRANDS The 50's gifted us with an authentic style that is still popular even today. A slick-back hairstyle can instantly transform your look.

BLUNT BANGS Bangs are high maintenance, so you have to truly want them. But if you're already comfortable with bangs and ready to go bold, try heavy bangs.

THE RED HEAD No matter your skin tone, there's a fiery hue out there that will work for you. The Dusty Red is great for someone nervous to try red!

SUN-KISSED BRUNETTE The sun-kissed brunette hair colour trend is paving the way for natural tones. There's a warm reflection to this hair colour. The goal is sun-kissed, not sun-bleached.

FRENCH BALAYAGE Balayage is great for people who want a ruckus-free and long-lasting alternative to classic highlights.

INVISIBLE LAYERS Invisible Layers are the secret for adding that whole cool-without-trying thing to your hair in a modern way, with no harsh layers in sight.

MID-LENGTH BOB This hairstyle falls somewhere above the shoulders and below the chin to perfectly highlight your collarbones. A mid-length bob is subtly sexy for a night out but easily toned down for a formal look.

Sumit Israni

- >> A SLICK-BACK HAIRSTYLE, WHEN DONE RIGHT, CAN INSTANTLY TRANSFORM YOUR LOOK.
- >> DUSTY RED IS GREAT FOR SOMEONE NERVOUS TO TRY RED!
- >> CUSTOMIZED AND SPECIALIZED HAIR TREATMENT BRINGS BALANCE TO AN OILY SCALP.

HAIR CARE TIPS FOR WINTERS

Avoid washing hair more than 2 times a week and opt for a sulfate-free shampoo.

HAIR SPA FOR OILY SCALP

Customized hair treatment brings balance to an oily scalp. It ensures nutrients are correctly reaching the scalp.

BEST HAIRCUT TO FRAME YOUR FACE

RECTANGULAR FACE Those with a rectangular face shape should work to soften the appearance of their sharp jaw and forehead without further elongating the face. For women, a soft layered cut can enhance cheekbones while disguising the corners of the face. However, overly long styles can further elongate your appearance.

OVAL FACES The most suitable style is a classic short back and side and slightly longer on the top, with a side-swept parting. Voluminous pompadour or a conservative quiff shall look amazing.

SQUARE FACE To complement bone structure, women should consider a side-parted style. Long and airy layers can also be flattering while disguising the sharp angles of their face. If you like a short length, consider a short, layered bob.

'TIS THE SEASON!

Smokey eyes, glittery lids, dewy skin and nude lips - a perfect nod to holiday season looks. Makeup maverick Leena Bhushan is here to help you glamourise.

It's finally that time of the year when every city around the world is lit up with festive cheer. The holiday season is our favourite time of year for one particular reason—it gives us ample reason to glam up! Yes, we mean different makeup looks any day of the week. And while classic holiday makeup looks like red lips and winged eyeliner are always a staple for family gatherings or cocktails by the fireplace, there's nothing wrong with adding some extra sparkle by playing with glitter products and more. So, say aye aye if you are looking for someone with glitter, and eye-catching looks for the holiday season!

This season, double-up the shimmer. Keep it merry and bright because 'tis the season for holiday makeup. Getting ready is an event all its own, and the ones who go all out — really go all out and let's just say an evening event is an excuse to get experimental. To make the task easier, we sat down with makeup artist Leena Bhushan for a low-down on-the-top makeup tips that will make you feel the most glamorous you have been all year.

1 If you're looking for a fail-proof option for a party at night, Leena suggests sparkle and bling! "The signature spark and bling makeup look can never go wrong at night."

2 For those who seek a more toned-down look, she says, "some sequins, gloss and nude makeup can create charm."

3 Leena also appreciates the power of accessories, especially jewellery and shares, "The right jewels can add a layer to the whole look. Make sure it matches well with your outfit."

4 In makeup, blending is key and smokey eyes look good on almost every face type. "The blend of smokey eyes with a warm tone of makeup can elevate the whole aura of your wedding look."

TREND TALK

“The cocktail trend is about all shine and glam. The outfits, usually shimmer and sequins, work so to match the aura of the whole look, I prefer glossy lips with glittery eyes with heavy lashes to give that spark. For hairstyle, my go-to is usually a high bun or a pony depending upon the whole attire.”

— Leena Bhushan

NEW PERSPECTIVE

IT'S A BOLD!

All about the newest venture Shantnu Nikhil Cricket Club (SNCC)

Ace couturiers and veterans of eclectic drapes that define sophistication, panache, and finesse, Shantnu and Nikhil have carved a niche for themselves in the Indian fashion industry. Born out of the love of design, two notable brothers and co-founders, Shantanu Mehra and Nikhil Mehra have redefined Indian fashion by offering a fresh perspective to the bridal and grooms wear market. Starting the label in 2000, over the last two decades the brand has helmed the title of being the most coveted designer for unorthodox drapes, progressivism, and distinctiveness by encapsulating the vibrancy of vintage India and blending it with modernity.

Their journey started out in 2000 with a menswear label that claimed many accolades, and in 2001, the designer duo expanded by launching a women's collection. Ever since the inception of the brand, the duo has challenged the age-old perceptions of bridal wear and presented a more contemporary and inclusive outlook. It is this belief that created the foundation of the Shantnu & Nikhil ideology – a gender-fluid approach that offers sartorial choices.

Further expanding, the brothers have even launched S&N, their bridge-to-luxury line in 2020 across the nation. The brand is a natural extension of the designer's couture line, with the design ethos especially curated for go-getters, disruptors and those who want to explore individual expression through fashion. Adding further to their prolific portfolio, the two forayed into the sports segment with their new venture Cricket Club, also known as SNCC.

An ode to the nation's love for cricket as a sport, it combines rich Indian heritage, contemporary craftsmanship and eye-catching silhouettes, and introduces the batsman logo that symbolizes the spirit of achievement. The lineup uses season-friendly fabrics like flat knit and premium silks which highlight athletic-chic-inspired details. From essential sartorial pieces like retro-doused varsity jackets, crested sweatshirts, sweater vests and classic cropped polos to classic pick-me-ups – neckerchiefs, sneakers, bucket hats, belts, SNCC represents a vision of modern everyday dressing and youthful swagger.

To know more about the new venture, the DLF Malls team caught up with the duo for an exclusive chat.

Tell us a little about what drove you to start this new initiative.

The building foundation of our childhood revolved around playing various sports and it has had an incredible impact on how we carved our design career. The distinct identity of a spunky, young urban India and sportswear culture is so powerful that it is now defining the new Indian lifestyle and Shantnu Nikhil Cricket Club pays tribute to our love of sports.

Why did you pick cricket as your preferred sport?

Cricket was always a binding factor in our country. There is an emotional connection that cricket holds and it keeps deepening with each match. We wanted to bring in this emotional nostalgia with the fashion force. Fashion has always been a part of sports, we've just stirred away from the conventional route of sportswear and ventured into a direction none of the Indian designers have taken yet.

Throw light on some of the key design elements and the special details we should keep an eye out for.

We've forayed into a whole new design aesthetic which involves new crest details which have been specifically designed for SNCC. The crest has nuances of cricket like the batsman insignia which empowers the customer to wear their love for the sport with pride.

Give us some style tips for AW 2022.

Layering and accessorising will be the biggest trends this season.

TREND TALK

Colours that will define the upcoming season?

As much as neutrals are an A/W staple, this season bold colours shall be in trend. This is the season to experiment with introduction to orange, pop colour twist in plaid, and multi-colour gingham.

Throw light on key draping styles for men (scarves and shawls).

Men aren't hesitant these days to experiment with accessories, and hence their best go-to options become tie and neckerchiefs for casual as well as formal occasions.

ART OF DRAPING

Bollywood actor Saif Ali Khan in Ahujasons

*Why should girls have all the fun?
Men, take note, here's how you can use drapes to add finesse to your look.*

Fashion is an artistic expression, and clothing plays an imperative role in manifesting your personality. This is also true for shawls and stoles; they are inherently crafted to make a person look a class apart, for they help accentuate a man's attire. But draping one could be a tricky art, and getting the drape spot-on means ensuring both warmth and elegance. In other words, making a precise statement with the right products and subtle tricks. If you are still trying to drape one perfectly, fret not! We've put down a few easy tips to help you sail through.

Double Fold

For those who wish to experimental and make a statement, this draping style is just for you. To begin, fold it along its length, put it around the neck and shoulders and loop it around your neck. Bring both ends to the front and adjust to check the tightness and the length.

Single Fold

Wish to look like royalty? We have just the drape you may need - the single fold drape. Begin by draping the shawl around the neck and bringing both ends to the front. Then take one end, drape it over the opposite shoulder and secure it with a pin.

Fall Style

A fail-proof styling option, simply adjust the width and length of the stole to your desired preference and drape it around the shoulders. Let it naturally fall to the front and make minute adjustments to give it the final touch.

Parisian Knot

Elegant, sophisticated and truly dapper, the Parisian drape is one of our personal favourites. Remember the basic way to wear a scarf, yes that's called a Parisian Knot. Start by adjusting the width, fold it lengthwise and put it across your neck. Now take the loose ends from one side together, pass the loose ends through the other end (the loop) of the shawl and tighten it a little bit.

COMMONS

TICKLED PINK AT COMMONS, DLF AVENUE

A TASTE TO REMEMBER

“ Food is symbolic of love when words are inadequate. ”

– Alan D. Wolfet

If what we wear is an expression of our personality, then the culinary choices we make are synonymous with our moods and the kind of life we pursue. Be it an Alfredo pasta enhanced with a sprinkle of oregano or the authentic Pad Thai served with the right condiments and the finest bottle of wine to go with it. Food is a journey and every culinary experience is about creating a memory worth cherishing.

While the city keeps innovating with gastronomical experiences be it drinks or food, you may find yourself scrambling if you haven't made a reservation ahead of the weekend. What if we told you that New Delhi has an ideal spot with all the top restaurants under one roof? And... you need not travel far to experience this. Because COMMONS at DLF Avenue is where the concept of work, play and dining are brought together in harmony. Bringing to the capital a new F&B Hub was DLF Avenue with the introduction of COMMONS, an exceptional curation of 43 bars, restaurants and cafés to satiate your taste buds. Being an entity in itself, COMMONS not only has its own entrance, but also has its own distinguished interiors and architecture - lending the space an eclectic, energetic ambience perfectly suited to all age groups.

The most recent addition to COMMONS is Tickled Pink by Priyank Sukhija, which offers quirky, colourful interiors, this casual dining restaurant will surprise you with its Nu Indian menu and eccentric décor! Tickled Pink keeps modern eccentricities at its heart. Combining form and function, Chef Sagar Bajaj, Corporate Chef at First Fiddle, has conjured a menu that is both modern and rooted, with his bold take on Indian regional cooking. One sees it in the unapologetic pink hues, the tossed-up pearls in the ceiling lights, and the wall art which is a tribute to the feminine in Fauvism, everything is as bold and brave as the modern woman.

From casual dining to hot favourites like Perch, The Big Chill, Pings and newer additions, COMMONS at DLF Avenue, Saket, offers a new perspective on dining while getting together with your near and dear ones.

A WARM, FUZZY FEELING

Irish Coffee

Winter season is commonly known for bringing in dull, grey skies and lazy mornings. And nothing makes it better than seasonal drinks and food curated with the finest ingredients to warm you up. Whether you are planning the drinks menu for your New Year's Eve party or you are an enthusiast willing to explore the festive flavours around town, DLF Malls has got you! After testing and tasting all the wild combinations out there, we have curated a list of trending winter drinks and food suggestions with a twist for your indulgence.

There is nothing quite like the classic Irish Coffee and Egg Nog. These drinks are blended with the holiday spirit around the world marking the start of the festivities.

If you are a cocktail lover, you know that the common icy drinks off the menu can be a little too underwhelming. Spruce it up with Chef Shamsul Wahid of Impresario Handmade Restaurants who shared, "Winter drinks are all about mulled wines, hot chocolates and brandy-based drinks that are flavoured with cinnamon, star anise, cloves and other whole spices." You can create these easy drinks for your party within minutes. "Cinnamon cloves and star anise when muddled with drinks add warmth and comforting notes to the drink, along with making the drink very tasty," shared the chef.

Jingle Juice cocktail

Hot Chocolate topped with Marshmallows

Do not forget to dress the drinks for the occasion. Add a hint of decoration in festive flavours to complete the recipe. The Jingle Juice cocktail is a Prosecco-based drink infused with vodka and apple juice, and topped with cherries to give it the festive look. You can also make use of seasonal candy canes for classic mimosas with a peppermint twist.

Mulled Wine

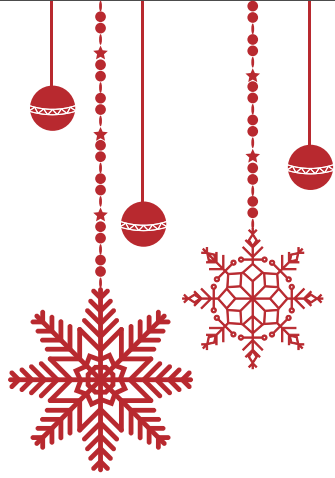

Lamb Shank

When talking about food, Chef Shamsul shared about a little star that is about to be featured on his winter special menu. "Winters are the time when everyone looks out for hot, wholesome hearty and comfort food. So, some good braises, hearty soups and piping hot grills is what we are planning for this winter. Winter food trends are always based on good braises, root vegetables, robust flavours, heart soups and grills. I personally love braised lamb shanks along with a risotto or mash."

NEW STORE LAUNCHES

REVAMPED &amp; REFRESHED: ZARA RE-OPENS DOORS IN DLF PROMENADE

After a series of renovations, Zara has reopened its doors in Delhi's most loved mall, DLF Promenade.

We have some great news for you this time – Zara has finally reopened its doors in DLF Promenade with a refreshed and revamped look. Dive into the experience of international retail now in the capital city of New Delhi. Coveted fashion giant Zara had been closed for a while now in the mall, but let us tell you it was worth the wait.

The renovated Zara store is a visual delight and guarantees an experience much like that of a store overseas. Stepping into the newly renovated store will almost make you forget that you're still in India. The refurbished store is the newest concept store in India, which offers a fully integrated experience with www.zara.com. Spread over more than 25,000 sq. ft., the new store champions visual merchandising and impeccably displays women's, men's and children's fashion collections on two floors.

Keeping the interiors minimal, earthy tones and hues of white are employed in the store. But what makes the store truly experiential and hi-tech is the introduction of the international technology of the self-check-out service and an interactive RFID-enabled fitting room, which consists of an interactive touch-screen mirror connected to an RFID reader and a motion sensor. This senses when customers enter the fitting room and also, detects what items they have brought in with them by reading their RFID tags. They then assist the customer throughout the fitting room process, giving them information on products and calling for assistance if required.

The buck doesn't stop just at fashion, the brand has expanded massively to include a beauty section as well as an accessories section for shoes and bags. Zara Beauty's cosmetics line has a wide range of beauty products for eyes, lips, face, nails and more!

Clean interiors, colour-blocked spaces, a modern outlook and contemporary design make this a sensorial delight.
